

'CELEBRATE 800' years of Headcorn Parish Church

July 15th to 17th

THE EXHIBITION

Friday 15th July and Saturday 16th July from 10am to 5pm

Sunday 17th July from 12 noon to 5pm

Free entry – donations welcome (card reader available)

Come and meet Henry of Ospringe, our first known Vicar, find out many interesting facts about Headcorn church and village life during the last 800 years

Artefacts dating back to the sixteenth century will be on display

Enjoy the flower displays which will enhance the exhibition

The Tower will be open for visits from 2-5pm each day (children to be accompanied please)

The bunting will be provided by children from our local Primary School

There will be a treasure hunt for children

And refreshments will be served throughout at the back of the church (coffees, teas, cakes)

THE CELEBRATION CONCERT

Saturday 16th July at 7-9pm

Free entry – retiring collection

It will be a fun concert featuring local musicians, with music through the centuries.

Drinks will be served during the interval (donations please)

THE THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Sunday 17th July at 10am

Led by our 75th vicar (Rev Fiona Haskett) and our Bishop (Rt Rev Rose Hudson-Wilkin)

We will give thanks for our 800 years (and more!) of Christian worship in this building

Coffee and cake to follow at the end of the service

This is not a Communion service, and all are very welcome to attend

